

BREAKOUT SESSIONS DETAILS

Breakout Session #1: Pragmatic Conversations

Chancellor Jacob Oliva, Dr. Kathy Nobles, Richard Myhre.

This breakout session will facilitate roundtable discussions that will enable district curriculum and instruction leaders to share successes and areas of concern.

Breakout Session #2: Shift Your Mindset: Re-Envisioning the Review of Professional Learning

Dr. Paul O. Burns and Jenna Evans

During this session, facilitators will guide participants through a series of activities and collegial conversations to develop a better understanding of how the department's new professional development review protocol is fundamentally different than the previous protocol, how it relates to their work as instructional leaders, and why it is important to embed this protocol as part of their continuous improvement process.

Breakout Session #3: Healthy Minds and Schools: Improving Student Outcomes Through Social Emotional Learning and School-Based Mental Health

Dr. Monica Verra-Tirado, Andrew Weatherill, and Rikita Patel

This session will engage participants in lessons learned from districts on year one implementation of school based-mental health plans, and youth mental health awareness. Districts will share best practices and discuss implications for the 2019-20 school year, including consideration for student mental health awareness, health education, and social emotional learning standards.

Breakout Session #4: Exploring ESSA and the School Improvement

Melissa Ramsey, Jeff Sewell, and Amanda Meeks

Participants will review the 2019-20 requirements of Florida's ESSA plan and walk through the new School Improvement Plan template and the school leadership companion guide. Important updates, beneficial resources, and how the data from ESSA's Federal Index and the 2019 school grade components can be leveraged to drive improvement for all students will be reviewed.

Breakout Session #5: CAPE Industry Certification

Kathryn Wheeler

This session will provide information and updates on Florida's Career and Professional Education Act (CAPE Act), including Career-Themed Course Registration, teacher requirements and test administration procedures.

Breakout Session #6: Impact Florida: Educator Perceptions of Quality Instruction and Equity

Trey Csar, Chief Operating Officer, Impact Florida

Learn about Impact Florida (www.impactfl.org), a new statewide organization helping to elevate support for and learning about the conditions that lead to great teaching. As part of their presentation, you will also hear results from a recent statewide poll of Florida educators, and their perceptions about what's support (and holding back) quality teaching in their schools, equity, instructional materials and the use of data.
